

GEORGIA BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

2024 Division of Forensic Sciences

Virtual Symposium June 20, 2024, 9am – 3:30pm

Presentations Topics

- Implied Consent
- Guidelines for Initial Screening of Friction Ridge Evidence
- Interesting Drug Chemistry cases
- Medical Examiner's Office
- Toxicology Trends
- Firearms Overview
- Evidence Receiving Overview
- Chemistry Overview
- Trace Overview
- Forensic Biology Overview
- Fire Debris Analysis
- CODIS Overview and Common Genealogy Questions
- Modification of Firearms (Switches and Full Auto Conversions)
- Significance of Trace Evidence Exams
- Footwear: The Forgotten Evidence
- Inhalants
- Evidence Packaging Do's and Don'ts

Additional Information:

For each time, four breakout rooms will operate simultaneously. You can only attend one breakout session at a time. However, you may attend another session in a different room if your breakout session ends early. Some session topics will be presented multiple times throughout the day.

You will be able to attend using the WebEx application and via your internet browser. If using the WebEx app, be sure to download well in advance of the symposium. This may take several minutes.